WECU's New President/CEO - Eric Brown settles in

Eric officially began work with WECU on Monday, May 23, 2022. It has been a couple busy weeks between meeting staff, visiting branches, board meetings, donations and settling in. Eric's passion and leadership style is people helping people and neighbors helping neighbors.

Community service is a key part of what makes White Eagle CU. "When it comes to community service it goes beyond sponsorships and donations. These are just a couple of ways we can help support our communities. But beyond that, connecting with your community and having your community connect with WECU is about volunteering. It is about getting our hands dirty right next to the other people doing the work" Eric explains.

White Eagle CU has been serving our communities and our members since 1935. Nothing has changed - we are here for you, our members, and our communities.

If you haven't had the pleasure of meeting Eric, we will be hosting open houses in each of branches during the upcoming months. Please check our social media, emails, and website for more information on dates and time. We look forward to seeing you!
