Letter from the President

I'm excited to introduce a new segment to our newsletter. At White Eagle Credit Union, we believe that leadership will provide an environment that energizes others, that inspires a collective process and creates trustworthy relationships. Our leadership team at White Eagle is a team you should know. So, with upcoming newsletters, I am proud to highlight members of the White Eagle management team. We begin this new segment highlighting our CFO, Jennifer Pazzie.

CEO/President

CFO Spotlight: Getting to know Jennifer Pazzie

Jennifer Pazzie is an integral part of our company's history and success, first as a member since 1977 and then joining our team in September 1992. She took on the role of a loan officer until 2001 when Jennifer transitioned to the credit union's overall accounting functions. Recognizing her exceptional talent and leadership qualities, Jennifer was promoted to the position of Chief Financial Officer (CFO) in 2010.

When asked what the word 'BELIEVE' means in the context of WECU, Jennifer responded that 'believe' embodies loyalty, faith, and trust. White Eagle Credit Union (WECU) has been a cornerstone of our community since its formation in 1935. "Ninety years later we are still going strong. Our members BELIEVE in us! And obviously, I BELIEVE in WECU since I've been a member for 47 years and worked here for 31+ years."

As CFO, Jennifer offers this financial advice to our members. "It's been said over and over, set aside a rainy-day fund." Life throws you curveballs, so start early, putting just a little aside each time you get paid. And remember, the credit union is here for you if your rainy-day fund isn't enough to cover the curveball.

Outside of work, Jennifer finds solace in yard work and gardening, finding it therapeutic. Recently, she discovered a passion for fusing glass, a hobby that has taken over her husband's shop with tools and supplies.

Jennifer's favorite quote, "Live life to the fullest because you only get to live it once," serves as a powerful reminder to prioritize experiences, relationships, and personal growth. Her embodiment of this philosophy shines through her work and life, inspiring those around her to embrace each
